Sustainability Champion of the Year Judging Criteria

The Sustainability Champion Award recognises the commitment of a retail business to positive corporate citizenship. This Award focuses on improving environmental awareness to employees and customers, sustainable forward thinking, and reduction of waste.

Rules of Entry

- Businesses selling a retail product as their primary product with a physical or online store operating in the Australian market.
- The business must have been in operation for at least 12 months and continue to be in operation at 28 August 2020. (You must notify the NRA if this changes.)
- You are welcome to enter if you have entered or won this competition in previous years, however if your business has won an award for three consecutive years you will be entered into the Hall of Fame and will be ineligible to enter that award for the next 2 years.
- You must nominate one person in your organisation to be the primary contact for your entry.
- Your business does not need to be a National Retail Association member to enter.
- We strongly recommend that all persons considering entering should check the Award website regularly and subscribe to receive award updates – click here to register.
- There is no charge to enter the National Retail Awards, however we do recommend that all entrants attend the Gala ceremony. If your company is a finalist, a representative of your company will receive a complimentary ticket and must be present at the Gala to potentially accept the Award.
- For companies with multiple outlets or franchises
 - o In general, each outlet of your business counts as one entrant - so if your company has multiple stores or franchises, you can enter every single location if you choose e.g. John's Bakery Malvern, John's Bakery Blacktown.
 - o Alternatively, you can just choose to submit your entry as your whole company, but this will mean that no individual locations may enter that same category.

- Purely online retail businesses count as one entrant. Multi-channel businesses cannot submit a separate entry for the online component of their business.
- Please note that the National Retail Association (NRA) reserves the right to disqualify entries if entrants fail to abide by the rules of entry or information provided is found to be false or misleading.
