Store Manager of the Year Judging Criteria

The Store Manager of the Year Award recognises an individual store manager who sets an example of exceptional retail leadership on the front line. They run a store (online or physical) which delivers a great customer experience, employee satisfaction, and bottom-line results, while demonstrating a solid understanding of their business and the industry. and stay longer, contributing to the overall success of the business.

Rules of Entry

- You must have been employed as Store Manager in your current company for at least the past 12 months.
- You must be endorsed by a senior representative from your company (e.g. HR Director, CEO).
- Defining Store Managers:
All individuals in the position of Store Manager of a retail outlet (online or physical) operating in the Australian market are eligible. Business owners who are the sole store manager in your business also qualify, however managers of multiple stores or Area Managers do not qualify. Managers of purely online stores can enter if they could reasonably be defined as a store manager.
- The business must have been in operation for at least 12 months and continue to be in operation at 15 October 2020. (You must notify the NRA if this changes.)
- You are welcome to enter if you have entered or won this competition in previous years.
- You must nominate one person in your organisation to be the primary contact for your entry.
- Your business does not need to be a National Retail Association member to enter.
- We strongly recommend that all persons considering entering should check the Award website regularly and subscribe to receive award updates – click here to register.
- There is no charge to enter the National Retail Awards.
